THE POWER BEHIND SUSTAINABLE CAMPUSES

Colleges and universities nationwide rely on Columbia to connect students and staff while advancing sustainability goals.

BUILT TO OUTWORK, OUTLAST AND OUTPERFORM

- From our 16-acre, 160,000-square-foot facility in Aiken, S.C., Columbia designs and builds electric vehicles that serve government, higher education, industrial, rentals and resorts and hospitality.
- As part of the Nordic Group of Companies, a family-owned American business founded in 1947, Columbia combines decades of manufacturing expertise with a relentless focus on performance, sustainability and partnership.
- Every vehicle features an all-steel chassis and corrosion-resistant construction for unmatched durability.
- 100% electric powertrains cut emissions and lower operating costs.
- Configurable beds, seating and enclosures deliver best-in-class versatility.
- Smart, efficient performance powers every move, tow and carry application.
- Columbia backs every model with over 75 years of electric vehicle expertise and nationwide dealer support.
